

THE PRESS.

OFFICE, 14 WEST FOURTH-STREET.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8

SIX CENTS WILL PAY FOR THE PENNY PRESS ONE WEEK.

BABY LOUISE.

"Why is a miser like a seasoned timber? Because he never gives." Dr. Abernethy used to tell his pupils that all human diseases sprang from two causes—stiffing and fretting.

"How do you flourish?" said a friend of ours to a writing master, the other day. "With my pen," was the reply.

An alderman having grown enormously fat while in office, a wag wrote on his back, "Widened at the expense of the corporation."

It is exceedingly bad husbandry to borrow up the feelings of your wife, to take up old quarrels, to hoe a grudge, and to sow a discord.

A Ode—
Byron had some splendid cognac;
Which of course must feel the better;
Byron, and not I.

The women of Poland have a watchful eye over their daughters, and make them wear little bells on their persons, to denote where they are and what they are about.

An English Judge in sentencing a man to death, added: "You will now have the satisfaction of having your case transferred to a higher, and let me add, an able Judge."

"Pray, my lord," said a gentleman to a rather whimsical judge, "what is the distinction between law and equity courts?" "Very little in the end," replied his lordship; "they only differ so far as time is concerned. At common law you are done for at once; in equity you are not so easily disposed of. The one is prussic acid, the other laudanum."

A Canadian bishop finding, after examining one of the candidates for holy orders, that he was grossly ignorant, refused to ordain him. "My lord," said the disappointed aspirant, "there is no imputation upon my moral character—I have a due sense of religion, and I am a member of the Propaganda Society."

"That I can easily believe," replied the bishop, "for you are a proper goose."

A girl out West having professed religion was so extremely happy that she was ever afterward heard singing at the top of her voice that old hymn, "The love of God is coming down." "No. Nothing stops her from singing this song. One day old Jowler, the house-dog, came in while she was singing and helped himself to a piece of meat that was on the table. Polly, observing the movement of Jowler, continuing her favorite song, said:

"If you don't go out I'll knock you down,
Hullo hallo hallo hallo,
You nasty stinking dog—
O, glory hallo hallo hallo!"

A NICE POINT—"I can't bear children," said Miss Prim, disdainfully. Mrs. Partington looked over her spectacles mildly before she replied:

"Perhaps if you could you would like them better."
